

What Building Officials need to know about the Office of the Fire Marshal

NBBOA has collaborated with OFM to present an information session on the Fire Prevention Act and how it is enforced in the Province of New Brunswick on March 10th, 2020. Outlining the roles of fire inspectors and their relationship with local building inspectors to provide safe buildings for owners and the public.

March 10th, 2020 Morning Session 10:00 – 12:00

Fire Prevention Act

- Appointments and responsibilities under the act
- Authority to enter
- Codes that are adopted and enforced under the act
- General differences between building code and fire code inspections
- Buildings that require plan review and the process to be followed by submitter

Lunch on your own 12:00 – 1:00 (cafeteria in basement)

March 10th, 2020 Afternoon Session 1:00 – 3:00

Building Fire Safety Technical Requirements

- Spatial Separation and Exposure Protection
- Exiting and Safety within Floor Areas
- Fire Alarm and Detection Systems

Office of the Fire Marshal - Who we are and what we do?

The Office of the Fire Marshal delivers provincial fire prevention and protection programs with the goal of reducing fire loss of life, injury, and property due to fires.

We collaborate with 221 permanent, volunteer, and industrial fire departments to carry out the provisions of the Fire Prevention Act.