1.0 Education Committee

1.1 Education Committee Members:

The Education Committee is a standing committee of NBBOA members who are accountable to the membership to provide current information on educational opportunities available in the Building Official profession and the training of new members who are preparing to achieve certification.

The roles and responsibilities for Committee Members are the following:

- To attend and prepare adequately for meetings
- Develop action plans based on course and exam feedback
- To research current educational needs of members
- To miss no more than 3 Education Committee meetings per year.
- To support the executive assistant in all education matters
- To understand the educational requirements of the NBBOA Certification Program
- Be familiar with the NBBOA Constitution, Code of Ethics (NBBOA Constitution, Section 14), and the Education policy

1.2 Education Committee Chairperson:

A chairperson will be elected annually by the members of the committee

The roles and responsibilities for the Chairperson include those listed above in 1.1 and the following:

- To be the key contact and representative for the committee
- Determine the agenda items to be brought forward at the Education Committee meetings
- To open and chair the Education Committee meetings
- To provide leadership and ensure the committee is functioning properly
- To provide updates and reports to the Executive Committee on a regular basis
- To present the Annual Education Committee Report at the AGM

1.3 Education Committee Meetings:

The Education Committee meets on a monthly basis between September and April. Committee members are expected to regularly attend meetings for a minimum of 2 years.

1.3.1 Quorum

A meeting of the committee may proceed when one-half of the Committee Members, including the Chairperson, are in attendance

1.4 Limitation of Liability

No member of the Education Committee is personally liable for a loss or damage severed by a person by reason of anything done or admitted to be done in good faith in the exercise of the power given by the New Brunswick Building Officials Association

2.0 Instructors
