- (a) Where conflict exists, members of the Complaints/Discipline Committee and/or its sub-committee shall abstain from any direct or indirect involvement or interest in any case being dealt with by the Committee or its subcommittee.
- (b) If further investigation is warranted, the investigated member shall be contacted by the Complaints/Discipline Committee, in accordance with Part C: Discipline.
- (c) The failure of any member to comply with the written request from the Complaints/Discipline Committee in connection with a complaint shall result in disciplinary action being taken by the Committee based on the information available to the Committee.
- (d) Reports of appointed investigating sub-committees must be made only to the Complaints/Discipline Committee.

3. If it comes to the attention of any Committee or Committee member that the subject matter under consideration, investigation or review, is subject to litigation, all action hereunder shall be postponed until such time as all litigation has been completed.

PART C: DISCIPLINE

If the determination of the Complaints/Discipline Committee is that the Code of Ethics has been contravened by a member of the Association, that member shall be subject to the following applicable disciplinary action(s):

- 1. Admonishment - This is written warning calling the attention of the member to the violation. Admonishment is not entered into the member's record. It is not published or made known to the membership or the general public. An admonishment is given by the Complaints/Discipline Committee if the nature of the infraction so warrants; however, a written report to the Executive is required. Additional disciplinary action of an educational nature may be required, where, in the opinion of the Complaints/Discipline Committee, the type of violation indicates this to be necessary or desirable.

NEW BRUNSWICK BUILDING OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION

2. Reprimand - This is a serious written warning calling the attention of the member to the violation. A reprimand is entered into the member's record for a period of two years after official notification of the reprimand has been given. It is not published or made known to the membership or the general public. A reprimand is given by the Complaints/Discipline Committee however; a written report to The Executive is required.

Additional disciplinary action of an educational nature may be required, where in the opinion of the Complaints/Discipline Committee; the type of violation indicates this to be necessary or desirable.

3. Censure - This is a formal written expression of criticism and disapproval of the violation and is given by the Executive. A censure is entered into the member's permanent record.

The censure shall be published and made known to the membership or the general public or both.

Additional disciplinary action of an educational nature, recommended by the Complaints/Discipline Committee and approved by the Executive, may be required where the type of violation indicates this to be necessary or desirable.

4. Suspension - This is a temporary revocation of the rights and privileges of membership in the Association, and is given by the Executive. It commences three days following the dispatch by double registered mail of the order of suspension and ends upon expiry of the period of time stipulated therein. A suspension shall not exceed two years, and during the suspension period, the member may not hold out as an affiliate of the Association in any manner nor be permitted to write any examination conducted through the Association.

Immediately upon receipt of notice of suspension, a suspended member shall transmit their membership certificate, Certification certificates, membership card and any other evidence of membership to the Association to be held for the period of such suspension.

At expiration of the period of suspension, and subject to any additional education requirements having been fulfilled, the suspended member shall automatically be restored to previous membership status and the evidence of the membership shall be returned to him or her.

Although a suspended member is not entitled to the rights and privileges of membership and may not refer to any other affiliation with the Association, the member remains a member for all other purposes, including payment of dues, and any failure to conform to the Association's Constitution and By-Laws or Code of Ethics shall be grounds for further disciplinary action.

A suspension shall be published and made known to the membership and the general public.

Association des Officiels de la Construction du Nouveau-Brunswick

5. Expulsion - This is a complete termination of membership or any affiliation with the Association, and is given by the Executive. It becomes effective 72 hours following dispatch of notice of the expulsion, by double registered mail, to the member.

Immediately upon receipt of such notice, the member so expelled must return to the Association the membership card, Certification certificates and any other evidence of membership in the Association. All reference to membership in or affiliation with the Association must immediately cease.

Expulsion shall be published and made known to the membership and the general public.

6. Failure to Comply - The failure of any member to comply with a written disciplinary order of the Executive, unless notice of appeal is given in accordance with the provisions made for same, may, in the discretion of the Executive, result in expulsion.

Admonishment and Reprimand are given by the Complaints/Discipline Committee. Censure, Suspension and Expulsion are given only by the Executive.

PART D: APPEALS

1. Admonishment - In the case of admonishment, appeal must be in person or in writing and must be presented at the next meeting of the Complaints/Discipline Committee immediately following receipt of the notice of appeal. There is no appeal beyond this committee.
2. Reprimand - In the case of reprimand, appeal must be in person or in writing and must be presented at the next meeting of the Complaints/Discipline Committee immediately following receipt of the notice of appeal. There is no appeal beyond this committee.
3. Censure, Suspension, Expulsion - If any of these actions are recommended by the Complaints/Discipline Committee, the accused shall have the right to appeal to this Committee. The appeal may be in writing or in person, and it must be presented at the next Committee meeting, occurring between 30 and 60 days following receipt of written notice of the recommendation to discipline.

If, following the appeal, the decision of the Complaints/Discipline Committee is sustained, an appropriate recommendation will be made to the Executive. If the Executive imposes censure, suspension or expulsion, the accused shall have the right to appeal to the Executive. The appeal may be in writing or in person and it must be presented at the next Executive meeting, occurring between 30 and 60 days following confirmation of the Complaints/Discipline Committee recommendation.

4. Suspension - All of the preceding procedures apply, except the accused may appeal only to the Executive.
5. Notice of appeal – All notices of appeal, and the grounds on which the appeal is being made, must be filed by double registered mail to the New Brunswick Building Officials within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the notice. The identity of the accused shall be known only by the members of the committees engaged in the process of investigation, appeal, and administrative procedure.

In all cases where an appeal is permitted, the accused shall have the right to attend or appeal in writing at his/her own expense.

6. Application for Re-instatement

- (a) Any member whose membership in the association is suspended by operation of Part C and against whom there is no charge outstanding under the By-laws, may apply in writing to the association (to the attention of the Registrar) to have their membership re-instated.
- (c) Upon receipt of an application from a suspended member under paragraph Part C, the Registrar shall notify the Executive, which shall thereupon establish a sub-committee of three (3) officers to form a panel and shall nominate a chairperson for such panel. The Registrar shall forward the application, together with such other relevant material as shall be available to the Registrar, to the Chairperson of the panel for review by the panel. The panel shall thereupon prepare a confidential report and recommendation for action to be taken by the Executive.
- (c) The panel shall not complete its review until the resolution of:
 - i) any investigation by the Certification Committee into the qualification of the member; or
 - ii) any complaint against the member of a breach of the By-laws.
- (d) Where an allegation of a breach of the By-laws results in a charge being made against the suspended member, the disposition of which by the Committee causes the suspended member to be expelled from membership before the panel concludes its investigation, the panel shall not proceed further with its investigation and the application made under paragraph (a) shall terminate and be of no further effect.

NEW BRUNSWICK BUILDING OFFICIALS ASSOCIATION

Association des Officiels de la Construction du Nouveau-Brunswick

- (e) Upon consideration by the Executive of the report and recommendation of the panel with respect to a suspended member, the Executive is authorized to;
 - i) maintain the suspension of such member;
 - ii) terminate the membership of such Member, or
 - iii) cease the suspension and re-instate the Membership of such Member.

- (f) If Membership is to be re-instated, such member shall pay all membership fees and dues to the association accrued but unpaid, if any, during the period of suspension and shall be subject to all Bylaws, rules and regulations applicable to Members generally. The Executive shall be entitled in their discretion to establish conditions for any such member.

- (g) The Registrar shall notify the member within 15 days of the decision of the Executive, and conditions imposed (if any).
